« When the Heart prays, and the Universe sings »

An Invitation to Explore the Inner Wisdom of Prayer : A Sufi retreat in Marrakech · 19-26th April 2027

Have you ever wondered what lies beneath the words, movements, and sacred timings of prayer, and how they can deepen our connection with the Divine?

We would love to invite you on a journey into the inner wisdom of salat, the five daily prayers, with Fawzia Al-Rawi in the beautiful city of Marrakech from April 19th-26th 2027. Together, we will explore the deeper meaning of prayer as a path to awaken into presence, purifying the heart, and opening ourselves to a more intimate relationship with the Divine.

Hadra Ensemble will accompany the retreat, inviting you into a journey where music becomes prayer, sound becomes healing, and the heart remembers its deepest connection to the Divine.

Drawing on the ancient healing traditions of Al-Andalus, where music was understood as a means of restoring balance and harmony within our being, Hadra Ensemble brings together the oriental maqam from this Andalusian heritage, the deep spiritual teachings and transmissions of Fawzia Al-Rawi, and the rich tradition of classical Western music. Through presence, the Ensemble creates spaces for harmony, connection, inner transformation and healing.

Hadra Ensemble will accompany the retreat through healing music, contemplative Samā, whirling accompaniment, chanting, and workshops. We invite you to a profound journey of presence, devotion, and deep joy of shared spiritual experience.

A small gathering with limited spaces in our beautiful traditional riad.

Fawzia Al-Rawi about the retreat, When the Heart prays the Universe sings

“Prayer can become a place of return, a moment in which the scattered self becomes still and the heart remembers its Sustainer.

We will explore prayer as presence, remembrance and listening. Throughout the retreat, the Hadra Ensemble becomes an essential companion to the journey using rhythm, voice and sacred music to open inner spaces, awaken longing and carry the heart beyond words.

Music will accompany the teachings, meditations and moments of prayer, responding to the needs and rhythm of the group.

A week of prayer, silence, music and movement: from restlessness to presence, from longing to remembrance.”

The doors are now open for you to join us!

We look forward to share this journey of the soul with you.
